

Different spiritual influences on earth.

Session n°1 of February 13, 2024 – English translation - Dutch original.

Location: Mezzaverde in Belgium

Received by Wivine

Visitor: Malavatia Melchizedek.

Questions from Wivine:

I had a lot of questions piling up. Lots of questions also mean lots of answers.

I had questions about revenge and retaliation. "Hate" that can be maintained against other populations for generations, just like quarrels between different families. Sometimes they don't even know anymore why they hate each other.

Why do so many people believe in a God of vengeance and retaliation, a God who punishes and would incite his believers to destroy another population?

There is also the centuries-old practice of brutal rape of women in war zones, ranging from grandmothers to granddaughters. This even goes to the extent that after the rape of pregnant women, their abdomen is cut open and the fetus or unborn baby is placed next to her. Is this another form of genocide to prevent the reproduction of a population?

Then the question of "rapture" or "shift" to a higher dimension arose with its different versions. Everywhere, on all continents, in all religious corners, people feel that an inner "change" is taking place, that something is moving within them, pointing the finger towards their hearts. I even heard it from a Shaolin master (Chinese warrior monks of Buddhist origin). They also claim that the good ones will continue to live on a higher vibration/frequency duplicate of the earth or the fifth dimension. For others, it is the end of days where the "good guys" will be taken to heaven and the bad guys will be left on our current material planet in miserable living conditions. As these stories do not resonate with me – I wonder if there might be confusion or misunderstanding?

The last question concerns some experiences I had during my last meditations where I had the impression of being with others in the capital Edentia of our Constellation Norlatiadek. Did we have contact with one or more of the Constellation Fathers who reign there and for what purpose?

Malavatia : Hello my children. I am Malavatia, of the Order of Melchizedeks. I am mainly concerned with establishing the link between your Constellation Fathers and the rebellious planets of your planetary system Satania, of which Lucifer was the sovereign, now replaced by Lanaforge. Both belong to the Order of Lanonandek Sons. I am not concerned with the Melchizedek schools which study the consequences of Lucifer's rebellion. My brother Malvantra is responsible for this.

I am speaking to you because as a group you are under the authority of the Most High – of the Order of Vorondadek Sons, who station here as Observer for the Constellation Fathers of the Norlatiadek Constellation in which you reside . I will come back to it.

I will first talk about the Goodness and Justice of God and the spiritual quantum leap that is currently taking place in the minds of humanity.

Humans' image of God has evolved over millennia. There was a time when God was described as a God who could get angry like a human, who punished man in many ways: through natural disasters, lightning, accident, disease, war. The priests of the time believed that this would promote the development of the human soul, because humans were living in difficult circumstances back then and were harsh in nature.

Humanity has changed in the meantime, the effects of the rebellion have been removed for 90%, the spiritual energy circuits and communications with the morontia and spiritual planets have reopened and much more has been done. It was therefore time to bring back into people's minds some of the teachings of Jesus of Nazareth.

Jesus compared the Creator of all to a Good and Loving Father who cares for his children so that their souls may attain eternal life. The physical body disappears after the experience of death because it belongs to the physical world. The soul being of morontia essence (half-material and half-spiritual), continues to evolve on morontia planets to develop into a spiritual creature of the first stage who would one day reach Paradise to stand before the Father of Paradise similar to His Image.

Each child receives a Fragment of God to achieve this with which the soul will one day fuse on one of the celestial worlds. Fusion can exceptionally occur here on earth, resulting in the immediate disintegration of the physical body.

God, the Creator of all, is Love. He waters all His Creation with this Love without making any distinction between the good and the bad ones.

He wants to attract all human souls to Him. He wants them all to experience eternal life, so that none are lost. He will never impose the death penalty on a soul. It is the soul, which persists in wickedness and sin, which completely distances itself from God that ends up destroying itself. Quite simply because "sin" cannot survive in an environment that is constantly spiritualizing.

The 1st Power and Spiritual Influence coming from the Universal Father which has a direct influence on you.

God gives a particle of Himself (God Fragment or Thought Adjuster) to every human child and thus lives close to your heart. Yes, He will put difficulties in your path to draw you to Him and encourage you to adopt higher moral and spiritual values. By doing this, He also shares all your sorrows and will always help you overcome them, even helping you succeed in your (honest) endeavors. The more you turn to Him, to know and love Him in your heart, the easier it will become for Him to elevate you spiritually through your human mind. Make your 'embryonic soul' a more spiritual entity from which the morontia soul with its morontia mind could already be born on earth. Which will then fuse with the Thought Adjuster on the Mansion Worlds to continue to evolve on the morontia worlds, later on the spiritual worlds. To become eventually a Spirit Creature that will radiate only Goodness, Wisdom and Beauty in the Image of God in Paradise.

The Divine Fragment or Thought Adjuster is Pur Spirit and very far from everything that the earthly human represents. In fact, the Thought Adjuster does not live in an organ and has no direct connection with the physical body. Which means you cannot feel His presence in your physical body. As this is difficult to understand for a human being who thinks materially, you are told that it resides in the human heart and/or human mind. Even the word "mind" which is an intangible element is often omitted to make its presence more understandable to you.

This is intended to encourage you to replace your lower emotions such as fear, hatred, anger, revenge, jealousy and envy with emotions of brotherly love, forgiveness, mercy and understanding for your smaller and immature siblings. Be aware that it is your feelings that influence your thoughts and actions.

God forgives all your mistakes, your missteps and even your crimes as soon as you realize that your actions were wrong and you change your attitude. Regardless of your faith, your physical appearance or your intellectual level, even if you are a pure and convinced atheist.

It is a fact that if you turn to Him and ask for His help in becoming a better person, the doors will open wide and your soul development will progress much more quickly.

This is how the human being in search of God will end up understanding that the presence of the inner "little God" or God Fragment makes an intermediary to guide him superfluous.

God knows no hatred, never gets angry, never gets irritated, never takes revenge, does not wish you unbearable physical suffering and never wishes the death of anyone, whether it is physical death or death of the soul. On the contrary, He will do everything to make you a loving and forgiving person, who can experience deep sorrow without making room in his or her heart for hatred and revenge, much less excessive murderous retaliation.

He will never encourage or authorize human beings to destroy a population. Nor to administer punishments that are disproportionate to the harm caused. If this has crept into the faith of a group of people, understand that it cannot possibly be from God.

The good news is that you are once again living in an environment where all spiritual and morontia communication circuits are functioning. Beyond the universe energy, there are other morontia and spiritual energies in abundance that will facilitate spiritual contact with your God fragment through the evolved morontia soul that actually resides within your physical body.

It is your morontia soul with its morontia mind, which evolves towards Divine Wisdom, which can come so close to its Thought Adjuster, which gives it the opportunity to make you feel a subtle sensation in the heart.

It is also possible that an evolved soul feels a subtle presence when it travels during meditations. On the condition of course of remembering what happens during these soul trips, which is far from being the case for everyone.

Adjustments are needed in your DNA and your brain to sharpen this sensitivity between :

the Divine Spirit – your morontia soul – and your physical body.

Adjustments that take place during your meditations and prayers. All this was not possible in the 20th century, only for a few rare initiates.

More and more people feel this subtle movement of their Thought Adjuster in their hearts and place their hand on the heart as a sign.

By doing this, each believer says to the other: God lives in my heart!

And if the other responds with the same sign, he or she answers: "I know!" God also lives in my heart. »

The intelligence and feelings of the human heart are rising globally and are influencing the thoughts and actions of their human mind.

A critical mass has already been reached so that the spiritual progress of humanity can accelerate. This means eventually the complete spiritualization of the entire planet. Not just from the population. As a result, every mineral, every stone, every mountain, every sea, every plant, every animal will also be spiritualized. This is a process that has already started – which will accelerate – and which will bring some turbulences with positive and negative consequences. Your planet will remain material for several thousand years. It will gradually become spiritualized and this begins with the people of today. The number of people who cannot or will not spiritualize will continually decrease until your planet is finally fully in Light and Life or fully attains the spiritual state of Paradise.

There will be no division or separation as many think between the good and the bad, between the spiritually evolved and those who are not. This is a dualistic, materialistic way of looking at the situation. God is Unity and in a world that is becoming more spiritualized, there will ultimately be no room for the germination of sin and evil because it is doomed to self-destruction.

Everything that is told about “change”, the 5th dimension, “rapture”, are stories or misunderstood messages by a materialistic mind. In themselves, they do not prevent the spiritual development of the soul, which depends mainly on man's selfless love for his siblings, his love for God and the search for divine wisdom. Many progressing souls, even embryonic ones, are now taught during sleep on the morontia Mansion Worlds.

This Love of God for man, His immense Goodness, is the foundation of the universal tendency to Love, to be merciful, to show patience and to forgive. It is even the basis of the Divine gift of free will to man.

It is thanks to this divine free will that man will want, at a given moment in his life, to rise to a more divine Love than what he currently knows and experiences.

So be patient and instead watch how your world rises spiritually from within and is changing accordingly.

The 2nd spiritual influence on man comes from the Fathers of the Constellation.

Civilizations are the work of humans. They can become empires only to be destroyed one day by natural disasters and wars. However, there is someone who is currently exercising his influence over the governments and institutions of the kingdoms of men.

There are universe laws and courts throughout the 7 Superuniverses, including your local universe of Neadon, to maintain good order and dispel any misunderstandings and quarrels that may arise in the morontia and spiritual worlds.

These laws and their courts cannot be compared to the rigid, retaliatory, sometimes vengeful justice that prevails on your planet. God's love for you will always transcend His sense of justice and righteousness. Which means that God will always prefer to forgive, show mercy than to punish. Just to tell you that your actual human justice, which is a reflection of your attitude towards your fellowmen, still has a long way to go.

The Constellation Fathers.

The Constellation Fathers are responsible for judicial laws and law enforcement in your local universe Neadon.

There are 100 constellations in a local universe.

Each constellation contains: 100 planetary systems.

Each planetary system can have a 1,000 habitable planets.

Their leaders are from the Order of Vorondadek Sons created by Christ Michael (Jesus) and your Mother Spirit after the creation of the Order of Melchizedeks.

Next comes the Order of Lanonandek Sons, from which come the rulers of the planetary systems and the planetary princes. Lucifer, Satan, Caligastia were all of the Lanonandek Order.

You live in Constellation No. 54 Norlatiadek of which Edentia is the capital; in the planetary system Satania – where Lucifer's rebellion caused a lot of damage and derailing 37 material planets.

Each constellation is led by at least 3 Vorondadek Sons called the Constellation Fathers or the Most High. If there are many problems in a constellation, there may be more. This is why your constellation currently has 12 Vorondadek Sons.

When a great disorder arises on a planet like yours, they send a Most High- Vorondadek Son, as temporary leader of the spiritual planetary government until a new planetary prince is appointed. Although Urantia has received one, a Most High still remains on your planet as an Observer with specific powers to eliminate the effects of Lucifer's rebellion.

This Most High Observer was charged by the Constellation Fathers to intervene in the affairs of the nations of Earth. This is why it is often said that it is not the human rulers who govern Urantia, but rather the Most High who “reigns over the kingdoms of men”.

It is also from your planet, Urantia, that all the other planets that have been affected by Lucifer's rebellion are being helped.

This is why you were in Edentia during your meditations.

You work directly for the Most High Observer of your planet. You therefore receive basic training according to the progression of your soul on the morontia worlds of the Norlatiadek constellation.

The Constellation Fathers are responsible for legislation and drafting bills for the 100 constellations of your local universe. They ensure that their application is uniform throughout all Constellations of Nebadon.

They have developed universities where all souls who are on the path to Paradise will one day study. You and others outside your group are sent there for training to support the work on your planet of the Most High Observer. This can range from:

- attending legislative meetings.
- receiving basic training in their universities on the general legislation of your local universe.
- And above all learning to collaborate in a pleasant way on projects with female and male morontia souls of a similar intellectual and spiritual level but from different planetary systems – which can bring some challenges due to the way you approach a problem .

The 3rd important spiritual influence on your planet is that of the Woman and Mother Spirit.

First of all, I would like to emphasize that women and men are indeed different and not only physically.

All creation is based on the collaboration of two different forces to create beings with personality. Call them what you want: positive/negative, masculine/ feminine, left/right.

This is found in the Trinity.

Then in the rulers of a local universe:

a Paradise Son – Creator Son and a Paradise Daughter – a Mother Spirit who create and manage together various Orders of divine offspring which will assist them in creation and life development in their local universe.

Urantia, your planet, is a material world where these two creative forces are present in humans: masculine and feminine. Men and women also have distinct physical aspects and different abilities to develop their souls into spiritual creatures capable of achieving eternal life. They complement each other, need each other to facilitate their own spiritual development, to bring new souls into the your world who will develop spiritually.

Your souls are polarized male or female because they are intended to function in the next era, a few million years from now, as ascended Creator Sons and Creator Daughters who will administer and populate new worlds with all that includes.

So those who proclaim that gender roles are not inherent traits of biological sex. That these are just male and female stereotypes, coming from social constructs reinforced and taught by society, are wrong.

The masculine or feminine polarization of the human soul accompanies the personality you receive from God.

I am going to give you an example. A child is born but the doctors cannot clearly distinguish the sex. The doctor and/or parents have to make a choice and they decide it will be a girl. The child grows up in girls' clothes, plays with dolls and with girls toys. However, the child does not feel comfortable in this role as it grows. It prefers to play with boys' toys. Then comes puberty and the child feels more and more like a boy in a girl's body. Despite the social, medical and environmental pressure that wanted him to be a girl since birth. Where do you think that comes from?

You live on a material planet where you can have accidents of nature for many reasons. However, this is not the subject I wish to address here.

The polarization of the soul is neither a social nor a material event. All those people who have problems with their sexual orientation or preferences also received a personality from God and an embryo soul that must develop spiritually. These people are also cherished and supported by us. These people also receive a God fragment with which they will one day fuse.

Be aware that from the 1st Mansion World on, there are no sexual relations anymore between souls and each soul has a predestined masculine or feminine polarization.

Nor are female souls taught in separate rooms. Female souls learn the same way as male souls, they sit in the same classrooms. There is no competition between the two polarities because neither seeks to dominate the other. As you progress through the morontia worlds and become more and more spiritualized, these external differences will fade but never completely disappear.

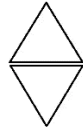

In the higher spiritual worlds, creation occurs through creative thought and not through sexual act.

Your Primary Midwayers were created on Earth exclusively through the creative mind powers of the physical staff of 50 men and 50 women of the Planetary Prince Caligastia after the outbreak of the Lucifer Rebellion 200,000 years ago. Primary Midwayers are androgynous. They have external masculine and feminine characteristics and are closer to angels than humans on the spiritual scale.

Secondary Midwayers were created +/- 35,000 years ago via a sexual act supported by creative mind abilities by a descendant of Adam and Eve and his partner. They stand between humans and angels and have very distinct feminine or masculine characteristics. They are men or women.

Humans are composite beings. A human is made up of different parts, including the soul and the physical body. He/she also has an energy body called by some the light body or etheric body. Humans have also a subtle masculine and feminine energy, usually represented by two interlocking pyramids. The feminine with the point pointing down lying in the heart and the masculine with the point pointing upwards above the brain. The two lower parts meet in the brain at the level of the epiphysis or chakra 6.

Mind-masculin

Hearth-feminine

These two pyramids must be united. Only then can the soul access higher spiritual insights and achieve emotional balance.

When we talk about spiritual or divine intuition, we are talking about concepts that are not covered in your earthly books, nor on the Internet. You can only achieve this by turning inward, doing meditations for this purpose.

A woman is much more receptive to spiritual influences and will more easily come under the influence of her Thought Adjuster when she turns to God. She will more quickly abandon her ego, which wants to keep control, to put herself under the control of the Thought Adjuster.

A woman, who seeks God, receives this Divine Wisdom based on Divine Love intuitively in her heart. Therefore she obtains immediately an overview of what is transmitted to her. She thus avoids the direct influence of the human mind, the masculine intellect and logic. This will awaken a different inner spiritual life that she will gently radiate around her environment.

Such a woman will express more and more the Maternal aspect and the feminine Power of the Deities of the Trinity (The Infinite Spirit and the Eternal Son-Mother) as she develops spiritually. This will give her a growing inner strength that will enable her to face difficult circumstances. She will gradually express more compassion, a desire to help others, to heal bodies and souls, and will be able to demonstrate more tolerance and forgiveness. She will mainly opt for dialogue and mutual understanding in order to maintain peace so necessary for soul growth.

The woman whose soul evolves spiritually is creative. She will manifest the Love of the Divine Spirit who indwells her. She will radiate love and divine justice with her humble and interior faith. She will strengthen the people around her in their needs, and will exert a lasting spiritual influence on her environment and well beyond.

The spiritual power and influence of women are essential to the advancement of the spiritual development of humanity. Man needs the spiritual influence, inspiration and wisdom of a woman.

A woman is not subordinate to man in the morontia and spiritual worlds. She is different, complementary in her tasks and co-creative with man. Man and woman in their differences need each other to spiritualize Urantia together.

It was a woman that was the first to teach spiritual concepts to her children and peers.

The morontia and spiritual energy circuits necessary for the development and optimal use of a woman's inner spiritual powers have long been disrupted by followers of the Lucifer Rebellion.

These were restored several weeks ago so that women can resume and implement their own spiritual model and take their place in the spiritual development of your planet. She will now fully be able to exercise her spiritual influence in family and society.

She was pushed towards the male model – in competitive mode by your civilizations. This did not benefit women, nor men, nor the family as the basis of an emerging spiritual society.

I think I've answered these questions from our point of view. There is a book written behind each sentence. Reread everything slowly, with your heart, letting the explanations seep intuitively so that the wisdom that it contains can penetrate directly into your soul.

We do not know polarization between good and evil, superior and inferior, friend or foe. We only know souls who are in the process of becoming spiritual creatures. Souls that we help without affecting their free will. To us you are children, some stunted, some confused and many ignorant. We treat you as patient and loving parents, aiming to bring you to higher spiritual insights so that you find peaceful solutions to your endless small and large conflicts. Wisdom that will elevate you all spiritually, socially and materially.

Goodbye my friends. This was Malavatia Melchizedek.

END.
